

DAY OF ADVENTURE – LEMURS PARK

Sunday, 4 August 2019

Full day visit to the Lemur's Park

Pick up at your hotel, and then start driving to the West part following the national road number one. On the way, you will have a several stop for the photos and to enjoy the landscape.

Lemurs' Park (also known locally as Parc de lémuriens à Madagascar) is a small botanical garden and lemur reserve covering 5 ha (12 acres), and is located 22 km (14 min) southwest of Antananarivo, Madagascar. It was founded around 2000 by Laurent Amouric and Maxime Allorge. Most of its nine lemur species are free-ranging within the park, which also contains more than 70 of Madagascar's endemic plant species. The park is open to the public, offering guided tours as well as standard amenities, a gift shop, and a restaurant.

The Day of Adventure Tour is free of charge for all ATBC 2019 participants.
