A full-day stop at Berenty in the private reserve of the De Heaulme family should delight you. There you will find their Makis (Lemur Catta), their Sifaka (Prophitheque de Verreaux) and much more other species of lemurs such as the Brown Lemurs (Eulemurs Fulvus), the red-faced Brown Lemur (Eulemur Fulvus Rufus), the Lepilemur Leucopus and the Grey Microcebe. Apart from its lemurs, Berenty will offer you its long paths of thorny forests to stroll along in the early morning while enjoying unmatchable feeling of calm and peace. There you will find other endemic species of Madagascar and even of the region. For instance, you will find nearly a hundred different species of birds among which the skinner Vanga, the 2 species of coua — Crested Cou and Giant Coua (Coua Gigo) with its blue face, the Coucou of Audebert as well as the love birds with grey heads and the beautiful ''Gobe Mouche de Paradis'' with its long feathered tail.

Croix du Sud hotel.

Fort-Dauphin (Tolagnaro) the capital of the region of Anosy is situated in the extreme Southeastern part of the island. An old town created during the colonial period. Some colonial houses and green streets give charm of the city. Fort-Dauphin is recently recognized by the new port of Ehoala which is the place of landing and boarding of cruise ships. Fort-Dauphin does not miss attractions doubtless because it is at the same time a rainy, green, desert and mountainous region.
